DELIGHTFUL BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. L. G. Danford was hostess to the Wednesday afternoon Bridge club yesterday at a delightful luncheon given in her lovely new home at 2317 Sonoma avenue.

George Washington decorations were used on the luncheon tables. Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. R. E. Budge and consolation to Mrs. O. E. Fossum. Present were: Mrs. Scott Liddow, Mrs. Luther Pierce, Mrs. Leta Lawson of Wilmington, Mrs. Ella Harder, Mrs. Ray Leslie, Mrs. George Probert, Mrs. Clara McCormick, Mrs. A. P. Stevenson, Mrs. R. E. Budge, Mrs. H. M. Haynes, Mrs. O. E. Fossum and the hostess, Mrs. L. G. Danford.

YOUNGS ARE HOSTS AT BRIDGE DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Young were hosts to a group of friends Friday evening when they entertained with a bridge dinner at their home on Amapola avenue. Spring flowers in pastel shades formed the floral note for the table decorations.

Bridge honors were awarded to Mrs. Wallace Post and Mr. W. Harold Kingsley, with consolation to Mrs. Ted Frenger and Mr. Wallace Post.

WASHINGTON BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. A. W. Johnson entertained the Tuesday afternoon Bridge club with a charming George Washington bridge luncheon at her home on Arlington avenue this week. Red and white carnations, comblined with blue delphinium decorated the luncheon table.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Persia Fess and Mrs. Esther Dennis. A guest prize was awarded to Mrs. Carrie Parks.

Present were Mrs. Cleora Stanger, Mrs. Edith Kasper, Mrs. Jeanette Maxfield, Mrs. Jennie Moore, Mrs. Hazel Fossum, Mrs. Persia Fess, Mrs. Esther Dennis, Mrs. Sally West, Mrs. Carrie Parks, Mrs. Margaret Fördige, Mrs. May Sibley and the hostess, Mrs. A. W. Johnson.

WHITE ELEPHANT PARTY AT THE PLAZA

Mrs. Earl Conner and Mrs. Alfred Kerber entertained their guests at a "white elephant" party in the attractive lobby of the Plaza hotel Tuesday afternoon.

Green, with symbolic motifs of St. Patrick's Day, was used in the decorative scheme and for the refreshments.

Proceeds from the party will swell the funds of the Lutheran Ladies Aid.

Out of town guests present at the party were Mrs. M. Lebscher and Mr. and Mrs. E. Geis of St. Joseph, Missouri.

GIRLS FRIENDLY HAS BRIDGE SOCIAL

Girls Friendly Society of the Episcopal church were entertained at a social last Tuesday evening at Parish hall.

Bridge was the diversion of the evening; high honors going to Edith Sleppy and consolation to Anna Margaret Sprunt. Mrs. Sleppy, Mrs. Caroline Collins and Mrs.

George Worcester were invited to the affair as associate members of the Girls' Friendly.

MRS. CRISLER HONORED AT SHOWER

Mrs. Roy Crisler of Redondo was the incentive for a lovely luncheon and stork shower given by Mrs. Raymond Young at her home on Amapola avenue last Thursday.

The luncheon tables were attractively decorated with spring flowers.

STORK SHOWER FOR MRS. SMITH

Mrs. C. L. Ingold was hostess Friday evening when she entertained at her home on Acacia avenue with a stork shower honoring Mrs. Howard Smith.

The honoree was the recipient of many lovely gifts, presented to her in a baby carriage daintily decorated in pastel colors.

Yellow daffodils were arranged in the living room, and yellow was the color theme used by the hostess in the refreshments.

Honors for high score at cards were awarded to Mrs. Carl Huston of Long Beach and consolation to Mrs. Mat Starr of San Pedro.

Others present were Mrs. W. T. Toler, Mrs. Lee Smith, Mrs. Loran Anderson, Miss Olive McKenzie and Mrs. Harry Kessler.

Mrs. N. A. Peck of Saint James, Minnesota, who has been a houseguest of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Evans, was the incentive for a lovely bridge luncheon given at the Evans home on Portola avenue last Thursday.

Pink sweet peas, combined with yellow daisies daintily decorated the luncheon table.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Joe Stone and Mrs. Caroline Collins. Mrs. Peck was the recipient of a guest award.

Present were Mrs. Peck, the honoree; Mrs. Ed. Kales of Oakland, Mrs. Al Harder, Mrs. Ellis Harder, Mrs. Ray Leslie, Mrs. W. H. Stanger, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. R. J. E. Fossum, Mrs. George Simpson, Mrs. Joe Stone, and the hostess, Mrs. Floyd Evans.

In bridge, the hostess introduced a clever innovation by awarding the prizes to the two who held the highest scores at the end of the first four hands; the prizes were not opened, but again awarded to the two high winners of the second and fourth hands, and so on through the five tables.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR ORVILLE HUDSON

The birthday of Orville Hudson Jr. was the occasion for a party given by Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hudson at their home on Andreo avenue Saturday evening.

Games furnished the diversion for the early part of the evening, and at 9:30 a delicious three course supper was served. The George Washington motif was used on the table, with a miniature cherry tree as a centerpiece and tiny silk flags, candles, and red, white and blue crackers completing the decorations. Cherries and red candles were used to decorate the birthday cake.

Following the supper, the party went to Los Angeles and attended the midnight performance at Loew's State Theatre.

SILVER TEA AT MRS. HUDSON'S

Forty-three attended the silver tea given by the General Ladies Aid of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. O. W. Hudson on Andreo avenue last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. R. A. Young and Ellene Masketry entertained with readings, and Gertrude Mowry and Dorothy Wann each rendered piano solos.

Following the program, tea was served, and each plate was decorated with a miniature American flag. Approximately seven dollars was realized during the afternoon.

ENTERTAINS WEST VIRGINIA GUESTS

Honoring Mrs. Amy Bodell of Hinton and Bluefield, West Virginia, Mrs. May McKinley entertained a group of former West Virginians at an attractively appointed luncheon at her home on Cota avenue yesterday afternoon.

Pink carnations and anemones formed the floral motif on the luncheon table.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Edwin Fox who formerly sang in "Blossom Time," entertained with several vocal selections. The guests then took a motor trip through the beautiful Palos Verdes hills.

Present were Mrs. Amy Bodell, honored guest; Mrs. W. E. Callahan, Mrs. W. Fred Bowen, Mrs. Mortimer Clark, Mrs. Alice James, Mrs. William McDonald, Mrs. Clemmie Watson, all of Torrance; Mrs. Tomayne Shaw of Alhambra; Mrs. Edwin Fox of Altadena; Mrs. T. J. Cover of Luray, Virginia; and the hostess, Mrs. May McKinley.

VARSITY CLUB DANCE

The Varsity club of the Torrance high school is planning a dance to be given on March 14. A number of novel stunts will be featured.

MANY GUESTS AT AUXILIARY PARTY

An interesting and colorful benefit dessert bridge party was given last Friday afternoon by the American Legion Auxiliary at the Legion clubhouse on Carson street.

Sixty guests attended the affair, which was given to swell the welfare fund and to add to the drill team fund.

The tables were gaily decorated by American flags and at each place a tiny candle rested on a base of blue and white mints.

Bridge honors were awarded to Washington hats in red, white, and blue were placed at each plate.

A program followed the dinner. Ellene Masketry, diminutive reader, delighted the crowd with several impersonations, and Mr. Vivian Smith entertained with a violin solo. Several short, humorous sketches were presented by a group from the Torrance camp.

MRS. GREINER PRESIDES AT MORNING CLUB

Mrs. Annie Greiner of Torrance presided at a luncheon given by the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion Auxiliary at the Friday Morning club last Wednesday. The affair was given for the state president, Mrs. Margaret Kaeding.

Blue and gold, the Auxiliary colors, were used effectively in the decorations. A gravel made by the disabled veterans was presented to Mrs. Kaeding by Mrs. Muriel Harton, Southern California hospitalization chairman.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the Auxiliary, tonight at 8 o'clock at the Patriotic Hall in Huntington Park. All unit chairmen are especially requested to be present.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON FOR HOUSE GUEST

Mrs. N. A. Peck of Saint James, Minnesota, who has been a houseguest of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Evans, was the incentive for a lovely bridge luncheon given at the Evans home on Portola avenue last Thursday.

Pink sweet peas, combined with yellow daisies daintily decorated the luncheon table.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Joe Stone and Mrs. Caroline Collins. Mrs. Peck was the recipient of a guest award.

Present were Mrs. Peck, the honoree; Mrs. Ed. Kales of Oakland, Mrs. Al Harder, Mrs. Ellis Harder, Mrs. Ray Leslie, Mrs. W. H. Stanger, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. R. J. 3rd hand ..... 3 quick tricks
4th hand ..... 3 1/2 quick tricks
There being so many exceptions that prove the rule, I can only recommend that one start off under proper tutelage if one desires to become a proficient contract player.

See you next Thursday.
P. S.—Say, Grover, I've a big idea—it is a wow! Why not give my demonstration hands some life, human interest as it were—you know what I mean? Sure, instead of using the North, South and East, West partnerships why can't we name our players? For our married couple Ned and Sue for North and South and perhaps an affianced couple—let's see Eve and Will should do for East and West.

Run them and let our readers name them. This foursome will play the demonstration hands in a club and will have the usual troubles and discussions. They will break rules, make the usual offenses against the ethics and etiquette of the game. We will give each player a particular temperament and try to balance them up fairly well, so that they can cover the general run of—you know—all the people one plays with!

Where do I come in? Ah!—the old club habitue, general crank, called an Authority on Bridge, procedure, rules and etiquette and admits it. I will be known as Ted and will butt-in at all times or even be called upon and make the most wonderful points. Say, write it yourself—but I can interpret plays. TED.
P. S.—Mrs. Streeter is going to shoot me—for of course, I must be at fault. We called her "Caroline" and her name is Catherine, also known as "Kate" by her intimates.
